MEMBERS OF THE MT. OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH TENDER THEIR PASTOR MAGNIFCIENT

Dr C. H. Clark Singularly Honored.

Elaborate in its conception and magnificient in its appointment was the banquet tendered the Rev. C. H. Clark, pastor of the Mt. Olive Baptist Chur for the last quarter of a century, in the Sunday school room of the church Monday night, December 17th.

Plans for this entertainment had been made by Mrs. Alice Douglass and were very fittingly carried out. It was estimated that possibly three or four hundred persons would be present on this occasion and a tempting menu was planned. The Sunday school room was handsomely decorated with the national colors. Across the whole front of the room a table was set for the accomodation of the seventyfive guests of honor who had been invited. The guests began to arive at eight o'clock and were met by the reception committee composed of Mrs. R. H. Boyd and Mrs. Easley. They conducted to the platform where they were preesnted to Dr. and Mrs. Clark and the gentlemen in the receiving. who were Deacon Gibbs, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Brown, Hon J. C. Napier, Bishop Scott, Dr. Woodby, Dr. F. E. Dawson, Mr. Patton, Prof. Shipp. A social hour was enjoyed during which many of the members of the church and visitors congratulated the pastor upon his suc  cess during the twenty-five years of his ministry. At nine o'clock the pro gram began. The opening song was by the choir. Prayer was offered by Rev. Patton, after which a solo was sung by Mrs. White. At the conclusion of the program the guests were seated at the table. Dr. and Mrs. Clarke were placed at the center of the table with Prof. G. S. Lytle on their right and Deacon Gibbs on their left. Grace was said by Bishop Scott.

Seated at the table with the pastor and his wife were: Dr. Woodby, Rev. J. L. Harding, pastor of the Third Avc. Baptist Church, Mr. D. Wellington Berry, Reporter for the Tennessean and American, Attorney R. L. Mayfield, Rev. H. M. Burns, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church, Hon. J. C.
